

dog of the month

name: Bubba Beene Bruno Bolen

nickname: Bubbs, Fat Man

breed: Olde English Bulldogge

birthdate: 8/18/2007

gender: male

favorite toy: tennis ball

favorite activity: swimming or defense class favorite training trick: Using “down” as a default position if unsure what to do or want a treat!

favorite destination: If not + dog, home!

favorite food/treat: Raw Meat

best friend: Gracie biggest accomplishment: Next to Dog of the Month and getting my Canine Good Citizenship certification, it would be finally figuring out how to lift my leg to pee!!

describe your perfect day: Most importantly, sleeping in with my head on my pillow in my crate, then perhaps a quick trip outside for relief followed by some couch time (on my designated spot) with a raw bone. Next, a nice afternoon walk (no wind or rain allowed) followed by a massage as I fall asleep for a nap. Before dinner, some play time with my sister followed by a big bowl of raw meat, snuggle time on the couch (again designated spot) and then at 9:30pm bedtime in my crate with some treats left on my pillow! Other than this my perfect day would be spent at + dog with defense class at the end of the day☺ when I grow up I want to be (career description) ... : hmmm...if not a Professional Bulldogge then a Bouncer so I can keep everyone in line!

I love my parents because ...: they take such good care of me and give me unconditional love!

I hate to admit it, but my naughtiest moment was...: when I was a puppy I ate the leather sofa! Also, peeing on my parents bed to establish territory when I wasn't allowed there!
