nickname: Finny Foo Foo

breed: Maltipoo

age: 1 yr, 10 mos.

gender: Male

favorite toy: Squeaky Squirrel

favorite activity: Running Crop Circles

favorite training trick: Dead man- as in Finn get over here or you are a dead little man, which means I run away. Just kidding, my favorite trick is %Stretch It Out+and I'm a master at Prancing.

favorite destination: Sneaking onto the back of the couch favorite food/treat: Kong Treats and Marrow Bones

best friend: Finn misses The Little Dog Crew at +Dog biggest accomplishment: allowing children to approach and pet me describe your perfect day: A nice long walk at the beach on Sundays where I meet my %Small Dogs of San Diego+play group followed by brunch on the patio at one of the doggy friendly restaurants. After brunch is an afternoon nap underneath the magnolia tree in the back yard followed by a trip to the pet store to pick out a bully chew. Then snuggles with Mommy and Daddy until dinner. Then a long walk before bedtime.

when I grow up I want to be...: A Bullmastiff (I've been the littlest, I'd like to be the biggest to match my newly-found spunky personality)

I love my parents because ...: I'm the most spoiled little man on the planet.

I hate to admit it, but my naughtiest moment was...: When I peed in the face of a dog who was barking at me, or I killed a squirrel in the park, or I peed on Mommy's pillow ñ the list goes on ñ
