biggest accomplishment: I have more confidence in myself and my mom so I have stopped barking at every dog I pass on the street and I no longer try to kill every kitty I see.

describe your perfect day: swim, hike in the woods, swim, long walk with my +dog classmates, cookout at Dexter's house, topped off by an evening with Francis at Doggie Defense!

when I grow up I want to be (career description) ... : tour guide: I love discovering interesting places to walk and visit in and around the city and then showing them to my friends.

I love my mom because ...: she takes me on weekly walks with my +dog friends and we're always off on an adventure – the beach or a lake, the Aquarium to watch the seals, the fountain and fog machines on the Rose Kennedy Greenway, brunch on Newbury street w/ Dexter & Sadie, home depot, on the bus, grandma's house and of course class at the +dog!

I hate to admit it, but my naughtiest moment was...: the day I ate the arm of the couch – what can I say, I was BORED and my mom left me at home alone, not in my crate!
