

dog of the month

name: Ginger Belle Watts Ebersole    nickname: Ginger/Gingy breed: retriever cross    age: 5 1/2 (ish)    gender: F favorite toy: tennis balls!

favorite activity: long romps in snowy VT with my pack favorite training trick: off-leash heeling with Teri favorite destination: our annual two-week camping trip in VT favorite food/treat: marrow bones (but cheddar cheese is pretty good too!)

best friend: my mom

biggest accomplishment: becoming a great big sister after being an only child for three years describe your perfect day: waking up at our campsite in VT and going for a swim-fetch in the lake, hiking, hanging out n my crate with a chew, going with the family for ice cream and hoping i'll get the end of a cone, curling up by the campfire when I grow up I want to be (career description) ... : a tennis ball and frisbee quality inspector

I love my parents because ...: they are almost always clear in communicating and because I'm so adaptable, I travel all over the place with them

I hate to admit it, but my naughtiest moment was...: breaking my mom's hand as i lunged for a rolling ball in the street. (three hand surgeries later, she still keeps me at her side)
