biggest accomplishment:

My biggest accomplishment is when I learned how to jump on the bed! Now I can sleep with mom and dad when they invite me up.

describe your perfect day:

First I would go for a morning walk with mom downtown. I would then take a short nap. When I get up we would go to the off leash dog park where I would run like the wind for a bit. Then we would go home and take naps. In the evening I would go for a walk with mom and dad to get them ice cream.

when I grow up I want to be...:

I professional stick finder. I can somehow always find the best and biggest sticks. Sometimes mom lets me carry it for a bit.

I love my parents because ...:

They take me to training at the Pawsitive Dog! And because they do all sorts of fun activities with me 😊

I hate to admit it, but my naughtiest moment was...:

When I decided to mark my territory in the lobby of Red Dog. Mom was not happy. In my defense, clearly someone else had marked there, too!
